13 September 2023

Dear Jo Saunders,

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION: Poultry figures

Thank you for your request for information of 21st August about Poultry figures. APHA have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

Your information request and our response are set out below.

“Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, can you please provide the number of poultry/egg/layer farms at county level still using caged systems in England, Wales and Scotland?”

The information you have requested can be found at Appendix 1.

The information APHA hold is a current snapshot of the information passed to APHA at the point of registration. It is the responsibility of the livestock keeper to inform APHA of any changes. Please note that the Livestock Unit Husbandry System is not always recorded on registration, and APHA can only provide data on the information that has been declared.

Poultry species included are the ones defined by the Department for the Environment Food and Rural Affairs (DEFRA) being, chicken, duck, goose, guinea fowl, ostrich, partridge, pheasant, pigeon, quail, turkey and rhea.

To find out more about the registration process you can access the link below:

Poultry \(including game birds\): registration rules and forms - GOV.UK \(www.gov.uk\)

Information disclosed in response to this FOI request is releasable to the public. In keeping with the spirit and effect of the FOIA and the government's Transparency Agenda, this letter and the information disclosed to you may be placed on GOV.UK, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context. No information identifying you will be placed on the GOV.UK website.

An Annex is attached which explains the copyright that applies to the information being released to you and contact details should you be unhappy with the service you have received.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact the Access to Information Team at the email address below or postal address at the top of this letter.

Yours sincerely

Copyright

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by copyright. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including for private study and non-commercial research, and for any other purpose authorised by an exception in current copyright law.

Documents (except photographs or logos) can also be used in the UK without requiring permission for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder.

Most documents produced by APHA will be protected by Crown Copyright. Most Crown copyright information can be re-used under the Open Government Licence. For information about the OGL and about re-using Crown Copyright information please see The National Archives website.

Copyright in other documents may rest with a third party. For information about obtaining permission from a third party see the Intellectual Property Office's website.

Complaints

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request, you may make a complaint or appeal against our decision under section 17(7) of the FOIA within 40 working days of the date of this letter. Please write to the Access to Information Team at the address at the top of this letter or email enquiries@apha.gov.uk and the team will arrange for an internal review of your case.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, section 50 of the FOIA gives you the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) for a decision. Please note that generally the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have first exhausted APHA's own complaints procedure.

The ICO can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office
